

Roaring Springs, Pa.

Dear Evangelist: We have been—metaphorically speaking—sitting in the nest quietly for some time, but Brother Holsinger's ecclesiastical pole gave the old nest a prod, and we are stirred out. Our long nesting has not by any means severed our church relationship, nor detracted from our faith. We want to say to Brother H. that we still are trying to show Israel their transgressions, and the house of Jacob their sins. The cause with us is moving pleasantly, interesting meetings, and growing in grace, and in the knowledge of the Lord; clinging to the old landmarks as given by the teacher of Galilee, and walking in the old paths. Our coming state conference has as yet not been located, we are awaiting "a call." It is in order brethren, and we are waiting for the request.

Don't be backward, speak right out in meetin'. The Sunday school convention, of course, will be included. We have had several intimations, as to where it may be held, but nothing definite. Let us get ready for it. Invitations for the conference are now in order.

Fraternally,

hundred people were there as usual. The wind and water were cold, and the storm made it very disagreeable, but praise God there was sunshine in the soul. At 4 o'clock in the evening we were at the water again, twice in one day. Bless God, when people are anxious to be baptized. One night when some young people came forward a woman that belonged to another denomination was heard to say, now I suppose they will take them down to dip them in the water. I said, Yes, praise the Lord, that's the way it reads in Matt. 28:19. Yours for the kingdom of Christ.

Accustom yourself gradually to carry prayer into all your daily occupations. Listen to the leadings of grace, then say and do nothing but what the Holy Spirit shall put in your heart. You will find that you will become more tranquil, that your words will be fewer and more effectual, and that, with less effort, you will accomplish more good.—Fienelon.
